2024-2025

Proudly Presents...

The title "The Wizard of Oz" is rendered in a highly stylized, bubbly font. The letters are filled with a vibrant green-to-blue gradient and feature a shimmering, multi-pointed starburst effect. The word "The" is smaller and positioned above "WIZARD". The word "of" is written in a smaller, lowercase font and is nestled between "WIZARD" and "OZ". The letter "O" in "OZ" is particularly large and contains a circular inset showing a blue silhouette of the four main characters from the story: the Scarecrow, the Cowardly Lion, the Tin Man, and Dorothy.

THE WIZARD OF OZ

Orchestration by Larry Wilcox

Adapted by John Kane for the Royal Shakespeare Company

Based upon the Classic Motion Picture owned by Turner

Director's Note

We are positive that you will have a wonderful experience as you enjoy the Wizard of Oz. We have 44 people in the cast and about 20 people in the production staff. It takes many hands to bring you a musical and we have had a blast, (most days), in putting this spectacular show together. We are all volunteers. Each of us, on our own time, has managed to get their part done, and done well, so that you can enjoy watching Dorothy find her way back home by traveling through the wonderful land of Oz. At the end of this performance I hope you walk away feeling that there really is “no place like home.”

From the time we started auditions for Wizard of Oz, people, our neighbors, have come out to support LionHeart Community Theater. You will recognize many of the faces in the cast since you see the same people in your neighborhood, in town or at the grocery store. One thing that I see in every show that I have worked, is that people meet new people and new friendships are formed between adults and between kids. That is one of the wonderful things community theater brings to the community. And everyone can afford to have more loving friends. As the Wizard says to the Tinman, “My sentimental friend, never forget that a heart is not judged by how much you love but by how much you are loved by others.”

- Ron Jenkins
